

SMALL GROUP STUDY GUIDE

WHAT DID JESUS SAY? Part 1

Icebreaker: in order to generate discussion and get people to know each other better, ask a question about how their week was (some highs or lows), something interesting about their past or about their general likes / dislikes (eg. “what is your favourite...?”) or their dreams and aspirations.

Passage: Read Luke 8:4–15

Intro: A brief intro of the teaching by the leader.

Question 1 - What do you particularly like about this passage? OR
What would you say is the main message of this passage?

Question 2 - What do we learn about God from this passage?

Question 3 - What is this passage telling us about people and their real needs?

Question 4 - How can this passage change our lives right now?

Conclusion: Summarise and pray for each individual’s needs.

SMALL GROUP STUDY GUIDE

WHAT DID JESUS SAY? Part 2

Icebreaker: in order to generate discussion and get people to know each other better, ask a question about how their week was (some highs or lows), something interesting about their past or about their general likes / dislikes (eg. “what is your favourite...?”) or their dreams and aspirations.

Passage: Read Luke 8:16–18

Intro: A brief intro of the teaching by the leader.

Question 1 - What do you particularly like about this passage? OR
What would you say is the main message of this passage?

Question 2 - What do we learn about God from this passage?

Question 3 - What is this passage telling us about people and their real needs?

Question 4 - How can this passage change our lives right now?

Conclusion: Summarise and pray for each individual’s needs.

SMALL GROUP STUDY GUIDE

WHAT DID JESUS SAY? Part 3

Icebreaker: in order to generate discussion and get people to know each other better, ask a question about how their week was (some highs or lows), something interesting about their past or about their general likes / dislikes (eg. "what is your favourite...?") or their dreams and aspirations.

Passage: Read Luke 8:22–25

Intro: A brief intro of the teaching by the leader.

Question 1 - What do you particularly like about this passage? OR
What would you say is the main message of this passage?

Question 2 - What do we learn about God from this passage?

Question 3 - What is this passage telling us about people and their real needs?

Question 4 - How can this passage change our lives right now?

Conclusion: Summarise and pray for each individual's needs.

SMALL GROUP STUDY GUIDE

WHAT DID JESUS SAY? Part 4

Icebreaker: in order to generate discussion and get people to know each other better, ask a question about how their week was (some highs or lows), something interesting about their past or about their general likes / dislikes (eg. "what is your favourite...?") or their dreams and aspirations.

Passage: Read Luke 8:26–39

Intro: A brief intro of the teaching by the leader.

Question 1 - What do you particularly like about this passage? OR
What would you say is the main message of this passage?

Question 2 - What do we learn about God from this passage?

Question 3 - What is this passage telling us about people and their real needs?

Question 4 - How can this passage change our lives right now?

Conclusion: Summarise and pray for each individual's needs.

SMALL GROUP STUDY GUIDE

WHAT DID JESUS SAY? Part 5

Icebreaker: in order to generate discussion and get people to know each other better, ask a question about how their week was (some highs or lows), something interesting about their past or about their general likes / dislikes (eg. "what is your favourite...?") or their dreams and aspirations.

Passage: Read Luke 8:40–56

Intro: A brief intro of the teaching by the leader.

Question 1 - What do you particularly like about this passage? OR
What would you say is the main message of this passage?

Question 2 - What do we learn about God from this passage?

Question 3 - What is this passage telling us about people and their real needs?

Question 4 - How can this passage change our lives right now?

Conclusion: Summarise and pray for each individual's needs.

